County H. D. Clubs Will Hold District Meet Here in May

Another important meeting has been scheduled to take place on the campus of W. T. this spring, bringing the probable total number of visitors for March, April and May to at least 3,500 people. The latest meeting is that of the County Home Demonstration Clubs of Districts 1 and 2 of the Extension Service, conducted co-operatively by Texas A. & M. College and the Federal Government. This meeting will be May 6, and Miss Mildred Horton of College Station will be principal speaker.

The program for the day is being worked out by Miss Orpa Dennis, head of the Home Economics Department of W. T., and Miss Ruby Mashburn and Miss Lida Cooper, district home demonstration agents of Districts 1 and 2.

W. T. HIGH TO PRESENT SENIOR PLAY MARCH 22

Crop Loans To Be Started On Monday

Money Available to Farmers Without Other Resources in Planting For This Year

Applications for emergency crop and feed loans for 1937 will be received at Canyon, beginning Monday, March 8th at the Crop Loan office, T. L. Miller, field supervisor of the Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Section of the Farm Credit Administration, said yesterday.

These loans will be made only to farmers who cannot obtain credit from any other source, as provided by regulations issued by the Governor of the Farm Credit Administration. The money loaned will be limited to the farmer's immediate and actual cash needs for growing his 1937 crops or for the purchase of feed for livestock and in no instance may exceed $400.

Farmers are not eligible for these loans if they can borrow from an individual, production credit association, bank, or other concern.

Emergency crop and feed loans will not be made by the Farm Credit Administration to standard rehabilitation clients of the Resettlement Administration whose current needs are provided for by Resettlement.

As in the past, the security for these loans will consist of a first lien on the crop financed if the loan is for the production of crops, and if for the purchase of feed for livestock, then a first lien on the livestock to be fed. Landlords, or others having an interest in the crops or the livestock to be fed, will be required to waive their claims in favor of the lien to the Governor of the Farm Credit Administration until the loan is repaid.

Checks in payment of the approved loans will be issued by the Regional Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Office at Dallas, Texas.

Services For Mrs. Fairrie I. Morris Held in Amarillo

Funeral services for Mrs. Fairrie I. Morris, 72, who died early Friday morning at Wichita Falls, were held at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Boxwell Brothers Funeral Home in Amarillo. The Rev. J. C. Sizemore, pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist Church officiated.

The Rev. J. R. Hicks conducted the brief services at Dreamland Cemetery where the body was laid to rest beside that of her late husband, T. J. Morris.

Mrs. Morris was a member of the First Baptist Church here. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Jones R. Christian, Claude, and Miss Ann Morris of Dallas; one step-daughter, Mrs. Virgil Beavers, Silverton, and two stepsons, W. F. Morris of Clarendon and Bill Morris of Clovis, N. M.

Pall bearers were Lem Donnell, Newton Harrell, S. B. McClure, Grady Oldham, Roy Wright, and W. J. Flesher of Amarillo.

1937 Car Plates Are Being Placed on Cars of County

New 1937 license plates appeared on the automobiles of Texas Monday, the first day when the new plates could be used.

Sale of the new plates picked up considerably at the office of Tax Collector R. N. Barnett Monday. A number had bought their plates during the month of February, but the plates could not be put into use before the first of March.

Automobile owners have until midnight, April 1st, to equip their vehicles with the 1937 license plates.

R. H. Wright will leave tonight for Mineral Wells where he will spend a few weeks.

Judge A. B. Martin Is Named Member of Supreme Court

Judge A. B. Martin of Amarillo has been named as a member of the Supreme Court Commission, and will begin his work on April 1st. Judge Martin is now a member of the Court of Civil Appeals, 7th district, Amarillo.

In accepting the appointment to the Supreme Court, Judge Martin will have attained a record never before achieved by a citizen of Texas, in serving on the three appelate courts of the state. He first served on the commission of the Court of Criminal Appeals, having received the appointment from Governor Dan Moody.

He was then appointed by Governor Ross Sterling to the Court of Civil Appeals, and was elected for a full term six years ago.

Members of the Supreme Court select the six members of the Commision who serve on the court with the same authority that members of the court have.

With the change of Judge Martin to Austin, Governor Allred will appoint his successor on the Amarillo court to serve until Jan. 1, 1939.

Cemetery Association Members Will Meet Saturday, p.m.

Members of the Dreamland Cemetery Association are called to meet at the court house Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

The association's directors wish to express their appreciation to the members who have paid their dues promptly in order that the needed work at the cemetery may be carried on.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Clark of Lakeview visited in Canyon over the week end and attended the Interscholastic basketball games.

Community Meetings Being Held Over the County

Money To Be Received on Vouchers Signed In About Three Weeks, Says Committee

Meetings are being held this week in the various communities of the County by the Randall County Agricultural Association for the purpose of electing community delegates to the County Agricultural Association, and for a general discussion of the 1937 farm program by the County Agent.

The Randall County Agricultural Association is now affiliated with the National Farm Bureau through the Texas State Association. Each farmer who pays his dues for 1937 will become a member of the National Farm organization. Membership rolls for Randall County will be made up about April 1.

Randall County farmers are showing a lively interest in the Government conservation program as well as the general farm organization movement.

The 1936 compliances under the Agricultural Conservation program included 93% of the crop land acreage of the county. Final applications for payment for 1936 have been signed and all that are finished have been transmitted to the state office for payment. Some have not been finished because of lack of signatures of absentee owners or interested parties. It is expected that the first payments will be received during the latter part of March.

Webb Will Speak

DR. JAMES F. WEBB

Dr. James F. Webb, now of the North Texas State Teachers College and formerly Superintendent of Canyon Public Schools, will lead a panel discussion at the Education Conference to be held here March 12.

The subject will be "The New Curriculum in Texas." The main address will be given by W. A. Stigler of the State Department of Education.

83 Books Added To County Library Since Jan. 1

With 83 books added to the Randall County Library since the first of January, the number of books on the shelves now total 4,038, according to Mrs. W. D. Burton, librarian.

Miss Ruth Cross donated 14 books to the library during the past week; Mrs. D. Phillips added 6 more books; 63 new books have been bought by the local committee.

The number of readers in the library have increased considerably since last fall, and the new books are greatly in demand.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Newberry and daughters, Dorothy Ann and Betty, of Happy visited relatives here Sunday.

Buffs Won Two Games From Daniel Baker College

Butch Clark Plays Final; Team Has Game Next Monday Before Leaving For Colorado

The Buffaloes won two fast games Monday and Tuesday nights from Daniel Baker College of Brownwood.

The score Monday night was 40-29. The visitors had the tally evened up four times during the game, putting up a fierce battle against the towering Buffs.

The game Tuesday night ended 41-18. At no time during the game did the visitors threaten the Buffs, who took a comfortable lead during the first few minutes of play.

Butch Clark, captain and only senior of the Buffalo squad, played his last game Tuesday night, as he has accepted a teaching position at Skellytown and leaves this week.

The Buffs will end the home season next Monday night when Southwestern Oklahoma Teachers will play here.

The season ends for the Buffs with two games at Golden, Colo., on March 12-13 with the School of Mines, followed by the National Tournament at Denver on the 15-20.

Residents on Campus Will Vote Tomorrow to Join in the City

A special election will be held Friday at the education building of permanent residents on the campus for the purpose of joining this section officially to the corporate limits of Canyon.

There are less than a dozen qualified to cast votes in this election.

Under the terms of the election, 69 acres of the campus will be included in the corporation of Canyon, if the proposal is favored by the voters. At the same time, 69 acres in the west part of Canyon must be dropped from the corporate limits in order to keep the total acreage of Canyon within the law.

Including the campus in the city limits became necessary under PWA, which requires W. T. to carry insurance on the addition to Cousins Hall, on Stafford Hall and the ten cottages.

The City Commission will meet Saturday to canvass the election returns and to pass the final orders dropping the land from the west part of town and taking in the 69 acres of the campus.

Annual Banquet of Dairymen's Association on Mar. 26

At the regular meeting of the Randall County Dairymen's Association, Tuesday evening final arrangements were made for the ninth annual banquet to be held March 26th.

Speakers at the meeting Tuesday were Roy Davis, Plainview; A. H. Krog, Platteville, Wis.; and O. C. Burgess of Amarillo. Mr. Davis is a member of the Board of Directors of the Texas A. & M. College and is general manager of the Plains Co-operative Creameries at Plainview. He told of the early ups and downs and the present success of the only big co-operative creamery in the Panhandle that is owned entirely by dairy farmers. Mr. Krog gave an interesting talk on side-line markets for dairy products. Mr. Burgess, who is with the Consumers Co-operative of Amarillo gave a talk on co-operative organization.

Rev. and Mrs. H. M. Redford of Hereford spent Saturday evening in the home of Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Pierle. Work pertaining to the Christian Endeavor Societies of the Palo Duro Union was outlined.

Marvin Jones Talks Over His Plan With President; Citizens of Territory Attend Meeting

Congressman Marvin Jones, from Texas, was named chairman of a permanent committee of five southwestern states and charged with the responsibility of directing the drive for soil and water conservation measures for the region in Congress, at a dinner in Washington Monday night. Carl Hinton, secretary of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce, is compiling briefs for use in the committees work in calling on various governmental agencies in carrying out a program mapped out by Congressman Jones. Aiding him was a delegation of Plains laymen from Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico and members of the Congress.

At the conclusion of a number of addresses, Senator Carl Hatch of New Mexico moved that the senators and congressmen of the five states and those laymen present be resolved into a permanent committee on soil and water conservation legislation. His motion was quickly seconded by Senator Josh Lee of Oklahoma, and passed unanimously. Separate treatment as a region was specially urged.

CCC Camps Urged

This action was followed by another motion urging that the CCC camps be retained in full force and 90 additional camps, granted the Southwest wind erosion area.

Congressman Jones was called before the President Monday in connection with the problem and has virtually ready for submission to Congress two bills dealing with the Southwest area and treating

Plans Made For H. D. Meat Show Held on March 8-11

Most of the Home Demonstration Clubs over the county are planning to place entries in the Meat Show which is being held in connection with the Amarillo Fat Stock Show at Amarillo on March 8 to 11. All entries for this must be in the office of Miss Allie Dozier by 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, Mar. 6.

At 2 o'clock, March 8, the judging demonstration of meat products will be given by Miss Grace I. Neely, extension specialist in food preservation, in the automobile building. Club members are urged to attend.

All counties entering the meat show are urged to enter an educational exhibit. Randall county's exhibit will be on chili, and all Tuesday afternoon chili will be served free by members of the Randall County Clubs. These educational exhibits will be held in the automobile building at the Tri-State Fair Grounds.

The cake baking contest being sponsored by radio station KGNC to be held in connection with the stock show, promises to arouse much interest in clubs, organizations, and among individuals, as any one is permitted to enter. The first club prize will be $10.00, and the first individual price of $3.00 will be given. Entry blanks for entering this may be secured from the office of Miss Allie Dozier. The judging will be Tuesday morning, March 9 at 9:30 o'clock in the general exhibit building at the fair grounds.

THE QUESTION OF COURTS

While the Newsman has been laid up with the flu, the question of courts has been raging from one end of the nation to the other. It is rather amusing to hear and to read the attitude of many people regarding the reform which is proposed by President Roosevelt.

It is a noteable fact that courts are considered sacred ground by the lawyers of the nation, and in the eyes of many lawyers the question should not even be discussed by the ignorant layman.

As soon as President Roosevelt proposed that the nation do something about the courts, making them conform to the ideals of 1937, it would have been amazing had not the lawyers jumped to the defense of the courts, and started the battle against the President.

Most of the leading opponents in the law profession to the proposed change are corporation lawyers, at least they are the ones who are doing the largest amount of talking.

The nation as a whole is pretty closely divided on the question, according to a report of the Institute of Public Opinion. 53% are reported to oppose the change, while 47% approve the President's program. Of course those in the 53% class are howling that the people of the nation are blindly following the lead of the President. It could likewise be charged that a large percent of the laymen who are doing so much howling are following blindly the leadership of some lawyer friend. At least the people of this nation have found that when they follow the President, they have been lead through more pleasant paths, and away from the days of choas and destruction which ruled the Republican administration.

The Pet phrase of the opposition is "packing the Supreme Court." If President Roosevelt were the first president to have a quarrel with the Supreme Court, the phrase might stand up. Other presidents have found the supreme court to be a stumbling block in the way of progress. In 1937 while the people of the United States are demanding a new era of government, why should not the courts be remodeled the same as other departments of government?

So far as the federal courts are concerned, The News has always been opposed to the idea of appointing judges for life, and allowing them to serve so long as they were out of the grave. Why should the federal judges be given a life long lease on their jobs, when the government prescribes that other governmental employees show some degree of efficiency when they reach a certain age limit? It is true that some noteable exceptions may be pointed out as to the usefulness of men after reaching 70 or 75 years of age; but while there are a few exceptions to the rule, the vast majority of men are not capable of efficient work after they reach that age.

The bill which has passed Congress to allow judges to retire at the age of 70 years on full pay, if they have served 10 years, may be all that President Roosevelt gets out of his campaign for court reform, but this one bill alone should clear the federal courts of a lot of dead timber, men who are no longer of use to the government.

Let's look at Texas district courts for a moment. There are 128 such courts in the state, and it is admitted that at least a dozen should be abolished. Governor Allred threatened to veto any appropriation bill which was passed unless the legislature passed a tax raising measure. While Allred was in Washington the legislature, composed of about 80% lawyers rushed through a bill which hiked the salary of all district judges from $4,000 to $5,000 a year. Walter Woodul lieut.-governor, signed the bill as acting governor before Allred could return to the state. There may have been an understanding between Allred and Woodul that this should be done to please the lawyers of the state, especially the district judges, but whatever the motive, the people wonder at the haste.

The other state employees will now be in line to have their salaries hiked by the legislature. If district judges are worth $5,000 to the state, then certainly educators are entitled to a living wage. The lawyers are trying to pass through the legislature a self-governing bar bill. If such a bill would speed up court procedure, eliminate wasted time, abolish unnecessary courts, and make the courts efficient, the taxpayers would welcome the change. But judging from the way that lawyers have been reforming their own profession in the past, we are suspicious that little or nothing would be accomplished by such a bill.

No, gentle reader, we are not sore at our lawyer friends, of whom we have so many, but we are disgusted that the law profession attempts to regulate and reform every other phase of life, but boils over with furor whenever a suggestion is made that the lawyers could do some house cleaning in their own profession, and could greatly improve the standing of the courts of the nation by enacting some sensible reforms.

President's All-Risk Crop Insurance Plan Looms as Ambitious Task for Uncle Sam

American agriculture begins another crop year. Will the land this man is turning over assure him a normal yield in 1937? Or does crop disaster lie ahead? To remove this specter of uncertainty hovering over the nation's farms, the government, through Secretary of Agriculture Henry Wallace, inset, proposes a national crop insurance plan.

WASHINGTON.—The government, in the event Congress approves a federal program of all-risk crop insurance, would face the greatest actuarial problem yet undertaken.

Starting with hundreds of thousands of wheat farmers, the program would eventually embrace corn, cotton, and other major crops. In time, it might conceivably include some 6,000,000 farmers whose farms, stretching from coast to coast, would represent every phase of American agriculture.

The government, moreover, would face a task in which at least four private companies have failed in the last 37 years. These companies met either bankruptcy or a lack of public confidence in the crop insurance field. So today the only protection available to the farmer is limited hail insurance and very few other specific risks. The all-risk indemnity, for private concerns, seems to be out of the question.

BUT the president's special crop insurance committee, which is headed by Secretary Henry Wallace, and has made a detailed study of the problem, maintains this sort of protection must be provided if American agriculture is to rest on a solid foundation. Moreover, the committee points out, the government alone is big enough to handle the problem, and to take some loss if necessary. In the aggregate, however, expense to federal, state and local governments from past crop losses, they contend, points very strongly to the desirability of crop insurance.

So Congress finds itself face to face with this gigantic problem. What are the points of the president's plan? Briefly, they are:

1—Insurance, beginning in 1938, to assure wheat farmers a "normal yield."

2—Collection of premiums in wheat or the cash equivalent.

3—Storage of wheat premiums in federal warehouses for release in years of low production.

4—A federal appropriation for financing administration of the program.

5—Eventual extension of crop insurance to corn, cotton, and the other major crops.

PARTICIPATION in the program would be voluntary, but it would be put into effect only in counties where a "reasonable percentage"—probably 50 per cent—of the wheat farmers agreed to insure. The amount of insurance on any farm would be determined by the average yield on that farm over a period of several years. The farmer would be assured a yield up to a predetermined percentage of his average production.

Premium rates, under this program, would be fixed by county committees and would vary according to risk. Rates on farms where short crops or failures have been frequent would pay rates up to 50 per cent of the amount of insurance.

The government would insure yield, and not prices. Premiums would be paid in wheat, or the cash equivalent and indemnities would be paid on the same basis, without regard to variations in prices. In years when yields were below the predetermined "average," the government would pay indemnities sufficient to bring the yield to average.

Thus, points out Mr. Wallace, consumers and farmers alike would be benefited, since price fluctuation would be checked and a steady supply maintained It is this feature that has started Saskatchewan in Canada and the Union of South Africa on an extensive study of crop insurance.

When the Republican attempted his reform.

The Texas legislature has killed the child labor amendment for the sixth time. The House has approved the amendment each time it came up, and then the Senate proceeded to reject the proposal. The amendment has lacked only two votes in the Senate upon three times. This time 19 of the 31 senators approved the amendment, but it required 21 votes for passage. The amendment was started in congress 13 years ago. No time limit was placed for final disposition by the states. The proposal may be brought up by succeeding sessions of legislatures of the states until the measure is finally approved by the necessary two-thirds of the state. This is a bad arrangement. Some time limit should be placed upon amendments which are proposed for the federal constitution.

Hitler is playing a hard game with European nations, and is making threats which could mean war immediately, if Hitler means what he says. He demands that the colonies taken away from Germany following the world war be restored. Whether or not Hitler will make good this threat to start war unless his demands are fulfilled is a question hard to anticipate. Economists do not believe that Hitler can finance a war. They likewise predicted that Mussolini would fail in Ethiopia. Economists often underestimate the reserve of those nations which are built and directed as war machines.

Amarillo is advertising the lowest utilities rates in the nation. A reduction of gas rates last week sets a nation low for the consumers of Amarillo. Since the utilities operating in Amarillo are of the same companies as those operating in Canyon and many other towns of the Panhandle, the consumer naturally raises the question as to why the difference in rates. Volume consumption is the key to the problem, which is a hard one for the consumer to understand.

Education Meet Will Be Held March 12 to 13

Foremost among the speakers for the Annual convention of the Northwest Texas Conference for Education held here March 12-13, is Dr. Carleton Washburne, nationally-known educator who has made remarkable progress in reorganization of schools to allow for adaptation to individual differences in pupils.

Dr. Washburne has conducted extensive research in school administration, curriculum, and teaching methods, and has applied his discoveries to the schools of Winnetka, Ill. public schools where he is superintendent.

Indications are that more than 3,000 educators, trustees, and school patrons will attend the convention. Schools over the entire section will being dismissed Friday in order to permit teachers to attend the first day of the convention.

The largest and most varied program in the history of the organization has been arranged. Special features have been arranged for school trustees and laymen as well as for the educators.

Six new special section meetings have been planned to care for the interests and problems of virtually every group concerned with education. New section meetings include gatherings for teachers of science, speech, English, foreign languages, mathematics and commercial subjects as well as sectional discussions for school principals, school administrators and trustees.

Musical features of an unusual quality will be given throughout the program. Musical organizations having a part in the two-day meeting will play at the opening of the general sessions in the following order, Amarillo High School Band, W. T. Band, Pampa High School Band, Amarillo Philharmonic Orchestra, and a choral concert will be given by 200 high school boys and girls at the opening of the final session.

Luncheons for the following groups will be held Friday at noon; instructors of commercial subjects at Cousins Hall; Parent-Teachers, at Randall Hall, and administrators at the Home Economics dining room.

A dance for all conference visitors will be given in the recreation room of Cousins Hall from 6 to 7:15 o'clock Friday evening, March 12. Music for the occasion will be furnished by the Pampa Orchestra.

I. B. Carruth, president of the organization, received word yesterday from Ghent Sanderford, president of the state board of education, who was scheduled to speak on the program, that he would be unable to attend the meeting. James O. Guleke of Amarillo, a member of the state board, will replace Sanderford on the program.

Other noted speakers are Dr. Harold C. Hand, professor of education in Leland Stanford University, W. A. Stigler, co-director of curriculum in the state department of education; Miss Edgar Ellen Wilson, assistant state superintendent of Education; and Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar, president of the 8th District Texas Congress of Parent-Teachers.

Dr. Washburne will give one of the principal addresses of the opening session of "Adjusting the School to the Child." He is the author of a book on this subject.

Gold's in Them Thar Furs

Unimportant looking little animals are those which Lloyd Prestwich, Inglewood, Calif., holds in his hands. But if you ask Mr. Prestwich, they're just about worth their weight in gold. They are chinchillas, raised at Inglewood on one of the most unusual fur farms in America. The farm at present boasts 850 chinchillas or more than three-fourths of the animals existent in the world today. Raised for their priceless pelts, these chinchillas are owned by Reginald E. Chapman, whose father imported the first ones from Chile.

Car Registration Starts

Registering of Cars and Trucks for 1937 has begun. Automobile owners are requested and required by law to furnish their last registration receipt or transfer record. It will assist this office greatly if owners where possible will register immediately so as to relieve the congestion during the last few days. Tags for 1937 may be placed on cars now.

Cooperation of automobile owners is asked in making a survey for the Federal Bureau of Public Roads. Cards will be furnished at this office with blanks requesting the number of miles traveled last year and gas consumption per mile and other valuable information which may lead to more and better roads in this county. It requires no postage to mail these cards. Help the County and State Highway Department secure this information.

First Meet From Mat Teams Win Roswell Cadets

West Texas State's boxing and wrestling teams initiated the year's ring hostilities by dumping the Cadets of New Mexico Military Institute 24-16 in Cahoon Armory in Roswell, last Monday.

In the wrestling division, the locals collected all of their points when they lost only one bout by a time decision and another by a default. All of the boxing bouts were decided in favor of the Institute.

Leo Jackson and Monroe Horton supplied the fireworks of the evening, subsequent to their triumphs in wrestling, by fighting in the heavyweight and 175 pound classes to fill the boxing card. In his loss to Hebenstreit, Horton's seconds were urged to pitch in the towel in the second round. Jackson sustained the bombardment of rights from the fiery mitts of Koury, Institute slugger, for a round.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Smith of Pampa visited in the parental Oscar Smith home and in the A. B. Holt home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Cox, Mrs. J. H. Harris and Rev. and Mrs. Earl L. Craig attended the 30th annual Bible lectureship of Abilene Christian College, Abilene, last week.

Miss Oressa Hastings, teacher in the Carey School, spent the week end here with her mother, Mrs. W. S. Hastings. Her school carried off the basketball honors from the Interscholastic meet.

Harry M. Gowan, British munitions maker: "No nation wants war. Nobody got anything out of the last one."

National Cherry Pie Champion

The good-looking cherry pie which Miss Betty Rine of Sturgeon Bay, Wis., is holding up for display, won her the title of national cherry pie champion at the recent pie-baking contest in Chicago. Defeating champions from eight other states, Miss Rine won a cash prize and a trip to Washington.

Mrs. Carl Hair, accompanied by her mother-in-law, Mrs. A. B. Hair, has returned from a visit with relatives and friends in Oklahoma and Liberal, Kansas.

Lulvio Suvich, Italian Ambassador: "Italy likes fascism; if Russia prefers communism that is her business and we have nothing to say about it."

SIDELIGHTS

By MARVIN JONES
Member of Congress
from Texas.

On March 4, various states thruout the nation are holding Democratic victory dinners to celebrate the continuation of the present Administration. In Washington the guests of honor are President Roosevelt and Vice-President Garner.

The Democratic National Committee has asked me to address the Deleware victory dinner at Wilmington, the state capitol.

March 4 is the day on which the president and vice-president were inaugurated for many years until the Lame Duck Amendment changed the date to January 20. It was on March 4, 1933, that the present Administration took office.

It was a day of solemnity and of hope—solemnity because of the discouragement that had gone before; hope because of the new road that suddenly opened ahead.

That date is a landmark in the life of every citizen in the land.

We have all been witnesses of the improvements that have taken place in the past four years. We have seen a program take shape for agriculture. We have seen thousands of homes, in the city and on the farm, saved from foreclosure. We have seen the development of programs of emergency relief and of public works and of housing.

And on last November, the nation expressed its desire to continue this work.

One of the numerous indications of the general upward trend is the recent announcement of the Treasury Department that not a single national bank failure was recorded during the past year. This establishes a 55-year record.

It is a startling contrast to that short time ago we all remember well, when conditions grew steadily worse until a banking holiday was necessary.

Four years ago there was banking chaos. Today the Treasury describes banking conditions as "very satisfactory."

Last month a national conference of farmers and representatives of farm organizations met in Washington to formulate suggestions concerning a long-range program for agriculture. The House Agriculture Committee also recently held a consultation with farm leaders to hear their views.

Proposals made at those meetings included the suggestion that the time for state administration of the soil conservation program be extended two years; further provision for marketing agreements and orders; and consideration of a storage and warehousing program which would insure against a shortage during drouth years as well as providing for better marketing conditions generally.

It was also felt in these meetings that the drive should be toward securing a fairer share of the national income for the farmers and ranchmen of America.

James E. Freeman, bishop, Protestant Episcopal church: "A conflict is on between materialism expressed in terms of communism and fascism and our so-called Christian civilization."

Herbert Hoover, former President: "The debacle which terminated the end of another apparently highly prosperous period was largely contributed to by a failure of industry to pass the improvements on to consumers."

A distinguished American artist says that art is immeasurably ahead of music and architecture. When architecture becomes surrealistic, we'll give up.

Flies, Parks His Wings, Has Auto

A bit out of the ordinary, of course, but this new contrivance of the road and air was designed to be just that. It's the new "Arrowbile," combination plane and automobile built by Waldo Waterman, noted airplane designer and builder of Santa Monica, Calif. Shown here as a plane, the strange vehicle can attain a speed of 110 to 125 miles an hour in the air and 55 miles on the ground. Powered by a six-cylinder motor, the vehicle has detachable wings. You fly to the airport, park your wings, and drive into town!

Warming Up Uncle Sam's New Tank

Lumbering over rough terrain at Fort George Meade, Md., Uncle Sam's newest type of army tank gets its first trial as shown here. The tank is the M2A2. The 66th infantry of the U. S. A. has been equipped with these light tanks. It is the first regiment to add the new units to its regular equipment.

Modern Equipment Installed Offices Dr. H. A. Brown

Dr. H. A. Brown has modernized his office during the past week by the installation of a lot of new equipment pertaining to Physiotherapy.

By the addition of these new pieces in his office, Dr. Brown has one of the best equipped offices in the state, according to Mr. Johnston, the factory representative, who placed the machines here for Dr. Brown.

Braddock-Louis Fight Looks a Good Bet for Participants, but What About Max?

BY PHILIP MARTIN

JAMES J. BRADDOCK will get $500,000 on the evening of June 22. Joe Louis will get his golden chance to become the first Negro heavyweight champion since Jack Johnson—and Max Schmeling will be holding the bag.

There'll be plenty of grief before Braddock and Louis climb into the ring. Not for Louis; Braddock and his manager, Joe Gould, will have all the trouble.

Madison Square Garden, with which the former dock walloper held a contract to defend his title against Schmeling, has announced through its rather effective mouthpiece and promoter, Jimmy Johnston, that it has no intention of letting the Louis-Braddock bout go through in Comiskey Park, Chicago—and no one ever before has succeeded in breaking a Garden contract!

YOU can't exactly blame Braddock for signing to fight Louis instead of Schmeling. In the first place, he stands to collect a half million, and since he annexed the heavyweight bauble he has profited only by exhibition affairs and stage tours.

In the second place, he suspects that the Brown Bomber, who flattened a lot of frightened second raters until he met Schmeling and Bob Pastor, isn't so devastating a bomber as he was ballyhooed to be—in fact, Jim says he'll flatten the dark Detroiter.

Braddock, who has seen Louis perform in five bouts, believes the Bomber uncovers himself when he shoots his right hand, and that this will be his undoing. Jim believes he is even more capable of blasting the Louis myth than Schmeling was.

The champion's signing with Louis was motivated by Braddock's desire to cash in on the great drawing power of the Negro. Gould insists that a bout with Schmeling at the Garden wouldn't draw peanuts. The anti-Nazi boycott that shadowed a fight with the Uhlan in Gotham is another reason why Gould chose to ignore his agreement with the Garden.

Heavyweight champion Jim Braddock, left, and the Brown Bomber, Joe Louis, shake on their new agreement to fight in Chicago on June 22. But will Madison Square Garden step in to prevent that battle? It appears so.

BUT that argument doesn't hold water, it seems to this observer. The bout between Louis and Schmeling in New York set a new after-depression attendance record, and an anti-Nazi boycott was supposed to be under full steam them.

There is no reason to suppose that the skillful buildup the Garden gives its fights wouldn't overbalance any effect a boycott would have on it—especially when there are many New Yorkers who would pay plenty of dough to see Braddock put the damper on the German's aspirations.

Jim is sincere in believing that he can get by Louis, however, and if the Garden's threatened injunction doesn't hold up the fight, he might. If he does, he'll take Schmeling for what he can get.

It's all mighty fine for Shamus, but Der Schlager is still waiting for the snipe.

THE EAGLE'S TALE

Coming Up! 'A Poor Married Man'

VOL. NO. 11. CANYON, TEXAS, MARCH 4 ,1937. NUMBER 24

Howdy, Gals and Boys,

How's this old world been treating you this week? These senior boys and girls have played their last basketball games and they've had a successful season. The girls going into district meet had a little tough luck, but the toughest luck of all was the end of the last game. If you could of seen the way those girls felt about the ending their season, you couldn't help but like every snitchin' one of them. The Eagles ended a pretty good old season of basketball in that there regional meet, but they'll be strong next year because they are losing just two first string players.

Them senior kids are sure going to break that camera at Britain's if they're not careful. Scott Downing told me not to say anything about his picture; so I won't mention the ugly duckling.

I peeked in Mr. Brown's civic class Monday morning and if there didn't sit every one just laughing till they cried. I waited till the bell rang to find out about the joke, but Herschel Burrus told me there wasn't no joke, but Mr. Brown got tickled and the whole room started cackling. That reminded me of way back yonder in '35, when Miss Jordon got tickled in one of her sophomore English classes and she had to sit down because she laughed till she was weak.

Of all the dumb things that these teachers do, that Mr. Pope can pull the dumbest. He skinned his knees Friday morning, by falling, he said, but I bet he just came in from the night before and his wife threw him out.

I hear that Junior play is really a scream. I hope Miriah won't make me wash dishes so I can come in to see that.

So long till spring don't turn young men's fancies to love.

Cactus.

HONESTY IS BEST POLICY

Had Diogenes come to Canyon High School during the past few weeks, his search for an honest person would have been rewarded.

One girl lost her watch during the recent Cal Farley Circus; the boy who found it returned it to a teacher and it was restored to its owner. Another girl lost a large sum of money on a basketball trip. The money was found and returned by another basketeer.

Such actions deserve recognition and recommendation. These are only two particular instances that happen to have come to our attention; we feel sure that other C. H. S. students have found that "honesty is the best policy" not only in keeping the respect of the other fellow but in keeping self-respect.

We hope that all of our students will follow these examples. When you find something of value, be honest with yourself and with the other fellow. By such acts is real character built.

ATTENTION, STUDENTS; LAST BELL

Can high school pupils be as orderly as those in the grade school? Of course they can. In fact, they should be more orderly; however, if you walked over into the grade-school gymnasium at noon and observed the children there and then compare them with the high school students, you would probably find that the grade students were more orderly.

In the grade-school gymnasium, when Miss Fronabarger rings the bell, the students immediately come to attention and all talking ceases; then they listen quietly to what is to be said to them. When the next bell rings, they pass in order to their rooms. The smaller children wait until those who go upstairs are out of the halls before they leave the gymnasium.

When you observe at the noon hour in the high school building, you find that the situation is quite different. When the bell rings, there is much chattering, slinging of books, and slamming of locker doors. As the students rush upstairs, they bump into each other and talk at the top of their voices. When the last bell rings, the students do not immediately settle down to work; they wait until the teacher is forced to ask them to be quiet.

High school students, what are we going to do about the situation?

Eagles Are Nosed Out By Meadow In Regiooal

Flesher Chosen Captain; Donnell Most Valuable

Natalie Flesher, junior and guard on this year's basketball squad, was elected captain for '37 and '38. Natalie came out for basketball year before last, but did not letter until this year. She was one of the outstanding guards on the team, and her past work proves that she will be a capable leader for the Eaglettes next year.

Kate Donnell was chosen as the most valuable player for the Eaglettes this year. Kate is a senior and will not be back next year. She has been the most consistent player in the team. Kate has scored over half of the points this year for the girls. She played guard and forward last year, but has been a regular forward this year.

The majority of the basketball girls are to be graduated from high school this year. Mary Collins, captain for '36 and '37, will finish, and along with her will be Wanda Brock, Dell Bagley, Carolyn Mayfield, Billy Greenfield, Mavis Harden, Kate Donnell, and Mary Jo Avent.

It is up to Captain Flesher, Renna Beth Bellah, Annie Ruth Schmitz, Sunshine Harden, Mary Bourn, and Fern Walters to carry on the Purple and White for the Eaglettes next year.

The Eagles finished a successful cage season Saturday morning when Meadow nosed them out of the Regional race at Burton Gym.

The Eagles represented District One of Region One and were placed against Meadow in the first game Friday afternoon and were beaten by a score of 29-27. Meadow had two boys who were handy with the ball, shooting one-handed over-the-head shots that knocked the bottom out.

Friday night, the local quintet encountered Perryton in an exciting game and came out on the long end of a close score, putting them in the semi-finals against Meadow Saturday morning.

The five played a fine brand of basketball in this game, but again the Meadow "hot-shots" got loose with an eye for the basket. The score this time was not so close, and the Meadow boys went to the finals against Carey, who from the start was favored to win.

Meadow's Broncos got the jump on the Cardinals and led the scoring till the last of the game. Foust, Carey spark plug, was considered an outstanding player who did more than his part for his team. The final score was Carey 26, Meadow 23.

The Eagles suffered a drop at the last of the season and never did get back to the top. They did not play as they did in the middle of the season, but they did their best.

"Bot" Rusk, towering Eagle center, was given honorable mention for the all-tournament team, and the rest of the team certainly did not let down any.

After all, it was a successful season, the Eagles having won third in regional, the farthest they have gone since 1926, when they won district.

Next year's team shows prospects of going even farther than regional, as only three lettermen will be lost from this year's team.

Second Graders See Building Materials

Carrying out their unit on shelter, the second grades went on a sight-seeing tour February 24, over the town to study the various types materials used in making homes and buildings.

The group was taken to see the Buffalo Courts, where they found the buildings made of rock. They passed the old faithful Buffalo; so they stopped to see him. They visited the little cottages on the W. T. campus, saw the homes of the Mexicans, and the chicken and rabbit farm at the college.

They found homes made of wood, light and dark brick, stucco, adobe, limestone, cement, pebble dash, rock, and tin. On their tour they also saw people living in a train house, a tent, a house of tin, and a dugout.

They paid special attention to the new post office, the various churches, the viaduct, and the house known to them as "the block house."

The grades are building small houses in their rooms. Mrs. Lee Beason has finished hers, which is a library; and Mrs. Stella Murrell's house, which is to be a tea room, will be completed soon.

The group made the tour in the high school bus under the sponsorship of Mrs. Stella Murrell and Mrs. Lee Beason.

CLUB TO HEAR DUFLOT ON JUVENILE PROTECTION

"Juvenile Protection" will be discussed by Mr. J. L. Duflot at the Child Study Club next Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the music room of the grade school. Mrs. W. L. Johnson will have charge of the devotional. As this is the next to the last program the club will have, Mrs. Ray Campbell, program chairman, urges every one who can to be there. The parents may bring up any questions they wish to discuss.

PROGRAMS PRINTED FOR EDUCATIONAL MEET

Programs for the Northwest Texas Conference for Education, which will be held at the college next week-end, March 12 and 13, have been printed. This annual meeting draws teachers and school administrators from all over this section of the Panhandle. A number of teachers from Canyon High School will have part in the various sectional meetings. Superintendent Irby B. Carruth is this year's conference president.

Mother Singers Sing In Assembly

The Mother Singers of the Parent-Teachers Association presented the assembly program last Monday morning. The numbers sung were "The Olden Songes" (Viennese Melody), "Song of the Danube," by Strauss, "Cradle Song," by Brahms (Waltz in A Flat), "Neopolitan Nights," by Zamerick, and "Sing, Little Banjo, Sing." Mrs. H. A. Brown directed, and Mrs. John B. Pope was accompanist.

Announcements were made at the end of the program.

Mrs. John B. Pope spoke to the girls on "Vocations" in assembly February 24, when separate assemblies were held. After her talk she played several piano solos upon request.

Funny Things Can Happen

Something funny happened last Monday morning in civics class; boy, was it funny! Everybody laughed and laughed, but the funniest thing was that nobody but Mr. Brown knew what was funny. It really must have been funny because everyone got tickled.

Mr. Brown was reading upon the serious subject of sudden death by car accidents, and the book was describing the most horrible things of a car accident; when all of a sudden he couldn't read any further and began to laugh. Everyone thought that he must be crazy because the literature he was reading wasn't at all humorous, but rather the contrary. He had just begun to laugh when some one saw it humorous to watch him laugh and began laughing. Soon the whole class was laughing at something that they never had heard. By the time they had all settled down to where he was getting ready to read the funny thing, the bell rang and nobody was able to find out what he was laughing at. I have heard of many amusing things, but this was my first experience of hearing anyone laugh before the joke was heard, much less laughing at a joke that they never did hear.

BABY CHICKS BOUGHT BY F. F .A. CLUB

The F. F. A. Club bought five hundred baby chickens from the Myer Hatchery last Friday and will keep them in the art room in a battery brooder.

Each member of the F. F. A. paid one dollar to help buy and feed the chickens. The chicks will be kept in the art room until they are four or five weeks old.

When they reach broiler and fryer size, they will be used at the F. F. A. Father and Mother banquet to be held in April. Those not needed for the banquet will be sold.

Large Audiences Attend Rufus Rose Show

Playing to large audiences at both the afternoon and evening performances, the Rufus Rose Marioettes presented "Snow White," "Treasure Island," and "A Marionette Carnival," February 25, in the high school auditorium. The afternoon performance was attended mostly by grade-school students.

"Snow White" was a lovely lady more beautiful than the queen, whom the queen envied. A looking glass that spoke and told only the truth, revealed to the queen that Snow White was lovelier than she. The queen, maddened with rage, sought to have Snow White killed. She tried several times but all in vain, until at last she fed her a poisened apple. It was almost unbelievable how life-like this scene was.

A prince who sought to marry her searched in vain until the dwarfs in the woods found him. The dwarfs had built a casket of glass for Snow White. While they were admiring her beauty, a leg of the casket fell, which brought her to life, and then Snow White and the Prince were happy.

Sam Receives Welcome

Sam, the master of ceremonies for the carnival, certainly received a hearty welcome after he had told the audience just how he wanted them to greet him. Sammy took great pleasure in introducing Ginger Rogers and Fred Astaire, world-famous dance team, who entered to "Organ Grinder's Swing." And could they dance! Light as a feather! Why, it looked as if they hardly touched the floor.

Toto the clown appeared in gay attire, all ready to pick himself up and climb the red tables placed one on top of the other. Toto then climbed the tables and balanced himself first one way, then another, until finally he unbalanced himself! Last but ot least for him he blew up a red balloon that carried him up and up until it burst, and down he came with a bang.

"Hello, Sammy," again; and now he introduced the famous ice skater, Sonja Heine. She glided along like magic, turning and jumping gracefully to a happy ending.

"The Man on the Flying Trapeze"

High Ho! "The Daring young man on the flying trapeze," swinging first by hands and then by his toes, the by his hands and feet, turning over and over, introduced the circus.

"Oscar, that is not until the last. You know better than that."

Know better than what? Why, of course, Oscar, the trained seal, forgot he did not play the horn until last. He balanced a ball on a stick, and walked a tight rope almost, but not quite, across the stage. He then played "America," having to pause not more than two or three times.

"Treasure Island" Thrilled

"Treasure Island" was given by the marioneettes as the main feature of the evening performance. Jim Hawkins, the Doctor, the Captain, John Long, Ben Gunn—all were there. Ben Gunn brought forth cheers of combined sympathy and amusement when he bemoaned his lack of cheese. Small boys sat on the edge of their seats when Long John called for an apple while Jim was hidden in the barrel; even some adults were heard to draw a sigh of relief when the pirate changed his mind. The sailing of the ship into the sunrise at the end of the play was one of the most artistic of the entire performance.

Travel 1,000 Miles a Week

The Rufus Rose Marionette show has been in operation for ten years. Marionette business is not a pick-up, it has been said. Mr. Rose has studied voice, lighting, and then the movement of the characters. The marionettes are manipulated by wires. When the body moves, only one wire is moved; but when the hand, legs, etc. move strings that are attached to the various parts of the body must be operated.

The Rufus Rose Carnival travels an average of 1,000 miles a week. Their tour, continued south from Canyon.

"A POOR MARRIED MAN" SET FOR MARCH 19

"A Poor Married Man," the Junior play, will be given March 19, in the high school auditorium.

The characters have progressed with their parts to the point that when a few of the parts are smoothed out, the play will be in style to be given.

The play, which has three acts, is described as being very comical and entertaining. The proceeds of the play will go toward giving the annual Junior-Senior banquet.

GUESS WHO?

He is in the grocery business;
His nose is long and thin;
He dances like a Fred Astaire,
And he has a timid grin.

Answer to last week's Guess Who"—Martha Carlie Wirt.

Seniors Sponsor Box Supper, Program Tomorrow Evening

"One dollar once, one dollar twice, one dollar three times! Sold to the gentleman on my right!"

So will rattle the auctioneer at the all-high school box supper tomorrow evening in the high school auditorium at 8 o'clock.

Following the selling of the boxes a program will be given consisting of both college and high school talent. The affair is sponsored by the senior class to help raise funds to apply toward the annual class gift to the high school.

So, girls, bring your fanciest boxes, filled with plenty to eat; and boys, bring your dollars—well, anyway, part of a dollar. Coach Emil Hutto, class sponsor, assures you, "everyone who comes is promised a grand time." Be on hand to laugh and eat.

Jean Slack is head of the committee for general arrangements for the supper and entertainment.

Eaglettes Play In District Tourney At Tulia

The Union Hill High School girls won the Panhandle Girls' district tournament at Tulia last week-end by defeating the Dimmitt sextet 37 to 34. Union Hill was in the lead throughout the game. At the half the score was 21 to 14 in Union Hill's favor.

Union Hill played Hartley in the semi-finals, while Dimmitt defeated Farwell for a chance at finals.

Hereford, the favorite of the tournament, was defeated by Hartley in the first day of the tournament. However, they went to consolation finals against the Eaglettes, who were defeated Friday night by Hartley, 39 to 21. The Eaglettes defeated Stratford 30 to 20 to entitle them to go to the finals in consolation. The Canyon Eaglettes surprised the Hereford girls, who were expecting a walkover, and who were taken down when the Eaglettes were in the lead by 14 to 8 at the half. The Hereford sextet changed their shirts at the half to white, and came out fighting. The score at the end of the game was 36 to 25.

Kate Donnell came back from the tournament with 16 points, Renna Beth Bellah with 14, Wanda Brock with 10, Mary Collins with 8, and Carolyn Mayfield with 2.

Union Hill placed three girls on the all-tournament team; they were Juanita Raymond and Ola Mae Evans as forwards, and Opal Evans as guard. Ina Merritt and Gertrude Wilson of Dimmitt were guards, and Billie Kelson of Hartley was the third guard. Wanda Brock received honorable mention. Margaret Reid was named the best sport of the tournament.

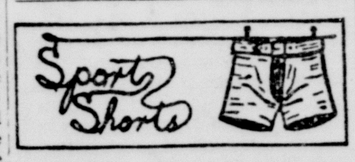
Union Hill will represent this district at the state tournament at Hillsboro next week-end.

Cluck, Albers, Wirt, Enter Tourney

Canyon students entered the tournament at Borger last Saturday in bookkeeping. Those entering were Evelyn Cluck, John Albers, and Mary Katherine Wirt. Miss Pauline Crittenden, typing teacher, went with them in place of Mr. Milton Morris, who was busy with the Regional Basketball Tournament.

Canyon and Borger were the only teams entered in bookkeeping in the tournament. So far no reports have been received as to the outcome of the bookkeeping test. The test was over all phases of bookkeeping which were studied in the first twenty weeks.

This tournament also included typing, debating, bookkeeping, declaiming, and shorthand, but Canyon did not enter any of these because of the basketball tournaments.



The Canyon Eagles ended their struggle for Regional champs when they were defeated by Meadow in a stiff scrap last Saturday morning.

The Carey Cardinals smoothly sailed into the final games, taking Meadows in a hard-fought battle for championship. The last part of the game proved to be exciting when Foust fouled out two minutes before the whistle, and Meadows made their final attempt for victory. Approximately 1,000 fans witnessed the final game.

The Eaglettes placed well in their bid for district champions at Tulia last Saturday, when they were finally tied down by nine points by the Hereford sextet during the consolation finals.

Spring football training and track started last Monday afternoon. Coach Hutto was pleased at the number of players out. There is plenty of good material for next year's ball club.

Mr. Stephenson, our new chinning champion, was observed at pactice on the iron bar last week. This would be good practice and good exercise for all the faculty in keeping physically fit.

Now that basketball season is over, interest should develop in intramural sports. The girls especially will find that intramurals will provide healthful recreation to everybody; to often those who need the exercise most do not participate in the interscholastic sports.

Betty Ruth Solomon visited Mary Thompson of Amarillo during the week end.

Ed. Conference To Hear Jr. Chorus

The Junior Chorus, consisting of almost one hundred and twenty-five pupils from the fifth, sixth, and seventh grades, is practicing a joint program to be given at the Educational Conference which will be held at W. T. S. T. C. on March 12 and 13. The chorus will sing "Beautiful Blue Danube" by Strauss, and "Negro Lullaby."

The High School Chorus will also sing with the Mixed Glee Clubs of this part of the Panhandle. They will sings songs pertaining mostly to this part of the country.

The band will also give a concert at the conference, before the sectional meeting of high school teachers.

Background, Character Deserves Praise

While the praise for the basketball teams is still echoing thru the rooms of Canyon High School, and the hands of the coaches are still numb from congratulatory handshakes, let us pause to pay thibute to one who is seldom seen or heard of, yet is as essential as any other cog in the machine of athletics.

The person in question is "our" manager, Sherman Higdon. Sherman is as prompt as a revolving door. At 3 o'clock he unlocks the dressing room and starts his afternoon's work. He checks out suits to twenty clamoring boys, seemingly at one time; yet, he is joking rebukes about supplying his on the receiving end of many slowness, tape, gauze, shoe strings, and numerous other articles, like a Red-Cross nurse in an army hospital.

After each game, he carefully spreads the suits out so they will not be sweaty and damp when they are put on again. He is made responsible for the basketballs and miscellaneous necessities that are too numerous to mention. Sherman spends as much time and energy as anyone; so it is only fair that he should receive his part of the credit that is so freely given to those who make athletics successful.

GRADE NOTES

The following review, as given on the cover jacket of the book, gives the reader an idea of what to expect from "The Boys' Life of John Burroughs," by Dallas Lore Sharp.

"Here is a marvelous, understanding biography of the greatest American nature writer of recent times. John Burroughs lived to be eighty-four; and in the course of his active life he wrote more than twenty-five books of essays and poems, many of which are now considered classics by lovers of the outdoors all over the world.

"The Life of John Burroughs is the more remarkable when it is realized that he was one of ten brothers and sisters—he was number seven to be exact—and that not another one of his family ever wrote a line or, in all probability, read through a whole book. John was of very little use on the farm. He was always lying under trees and dreaming whenever he could get out of doing farm work; but it was those years of his boyhood spent next to nature and in sight of the mountains that gave him the fullness of experience and the inspiration to live the extraordinary life which is told in these pages.

"Dallas Lore Sharp is himself widely known for his writings on birds and other nature subjects. He paid a visit to John Burroughs at Woodchuck Lodge—his farm in the Catskill Mountains—just before the old man's eighty-fourth birthday, and at the beginning of this book he tells about that occasion."

Taken as a whole, this biography of a man who knew and loved Nature in all her moods is one that not only boys but everybody who knows the charm of the out-of-doors will enjoy.

Girls Intramural Gets Underway This Week

Intramurals for girls got underway last Monday afternoon when the girls from the different classes met and chose coaches for the various teams. The coaches were chosen from this year's letter-women.

The Senior team chose as their coach Kate Donnell, high-pointer for the Eaglettes the past season and recently selected the most valuable player on the 1937 squad. As her assistant, the Seniors named Carolyn Mayfield, the Eaglette midget forward. Both girls played their last game for Canyon High School last week-end at Tulia.

Mary Collins, captain of the '37 Eaglette squad, was selected Junior coach, and Natalie Flesher was elected her assistant. Natalie is next year's captain-elect and the only 1938 Senior to letter this year. Mary has coached the winning intramural team for the past two years; she is a Senior and retiring captain of the Eaglettes.

The favored Sophomore team for the tournament selected as their coach, Renna Beth Bellah, a sophomore and a two-year letter-woman. Renna Beth has played forward for two years and is in line for some excellent playing the coming two years.

The Freshmen named Canyon's pocket-size guard their leader in the coming tournament, this being none other than Billy Greenfield. As her assistant, Mavis Harden was selected. Mavis is a one-year letter guard, who has shown great ability this season. Both girls are seniors this year and entering in their last athletics this week.

Wanda Brock, who was last year's captain and all-tournament guard at the Dimmitt Tournament last fall was given honorable mention on the all-District Tournament team last week, was chosen as the coach of the Seventh grade team in intramurals.

Practice is going good this week, and the tournament proper will begin Monday of next week. Single elimination will be used to determine the winner.

Miss Ruth Greenfield, assistant coach of the Eaglettes, will be in charge of the girls' intramural tournament. Boys' intramurals will be held later in the spring, as the boys are busy now with track and spring football. Mr. Gerald Brown, girls' basketball coach, will be in charge of the boys' division of the intramurals.

Students Receive Part-Time Work

The National Youth Administration makes it possible for over 12,000 boys and girls in Texas to work part-time while they are attending school. Canyon High School employes Hardine Rogge, Pauline Harris, Lillian Tate, Dora Tucek, Wannie Thomas, Wayne Marsh, Scott Downing, Sherman Higdon and R. E. Prichard on this program.

N. Y. A. student workers are between 16 and 25 years of age and are selected for their jobs on the basis of character, ability, and need. They are assigned socially-desirable jobs by teachers who also supervise the work.

Allotment of part-time jobs to elementary and high school students is only a part of the student aid program of the National Youth Administration. In 87 Texas colleges and universities, over 7,000 boys and girls are earning a maximum wage of $15 a month.

The National Youth Administration was set up to assist young men and women to continue their education; to employ on part-time work projects of unemployed youths between 18 and 25 who are unemployed and eligible for work relief; to encourage the development and extension of constructive educational, recreational, and job-qualifying leisure-time activities; and to encourage the establishment of job training, counseling, and placement services.

Mr. H. G. Moore, high school teacher, and Mr. Gordon Beck, teacher in the elementary school; and Miss Hellen Hickman, of the college faculty, judged one-act plays at the Amarillo Junior College Friday night.

Elton Anderson of Amarillo visited Melvin Calliham Sunday.

Miss Jewell Foster spent Saturday in Amarillo.

Senate Slashes Emergency Fund Appropriation

Joint Committee Must Consider Amount Next

The Senate Committee on Appropriations scaled an emergency appropriation fund for W. T. down to approximately $27,000 last week. The House Committee had approved a fund of $33,866 a short time before.

Dr. J. A. Hill had requested an emergency fund to complete unfinished WPA projects on the campus, for general maintenance of the College plant, and for salaries of College employees paid from the local fund. He originally asked for $42,944, but this was not approved in the House.

The emergency fund appropriation will be referred to joint committee for final consideration.

The House Committee on Appropriations has approved an appropriation of $19,740 for the summer session. "This sum is approximately $5,000 more than the amount which we had last summer," Dr. Hill commented.

The regular budget for the next biennium will be taken up about the middle of March, according to Dr. Hill.

Dr. and Mrs. Hill attended the convention of the American Association of Teachers Colleges, a branch of the National Education Association, at New Orleans February 19 and 20. This convention was composed of representatives from all over the United States and the program was national in scope.

Dr. Hill left Sunday for Austin where he will appear before the Education Committee of the House in the matter of graduate work offered here.

Carey Is Victor In Regional Cage Elimination Meet

Carey's "tallying twins," Foust and Redwine, were partially checked by the rushing defense of the vigilant Meadow cagers in Burton Gymnasium Saturday night, but not enough as the Carey hoopsters reappeared as champions of this region by a 26-23 win.

By virtue of the triumph, the Cardinals will represent this territory in the state schoolboy cage meet in Austin on March 5 and 6. Last year, the Redberds pranced into the semi-finals where they were halted by Cushing, the champions.

In the final fray, Foust and Finley, the tournament's high scorers gave way to "Sleepy" Redwine in the scoring column. Redwine hit the mesh for nine markers, followed by the leaders who hit for eight each.

Canyon High, one of the favored clubs, was ousted from the meet by respective losses of 29-27, 36-27 to Meadow. Perryton, representative of the Pampa district, was defeated by Carey and Canyon to be the first team eliminated.

An all-tournament team selected by officials placed Hunt, Foust, Gresham of Carey and Finley and Murphy of Meadow in the honorary positions. Finley led the scoring with 37 points. Gresham of Carey was chosen as the most valuable player to his team.

Clarence Thompson has been laid up the past week with an attack of the flu.

We are having a beautiful spring day this morning for which we are very grateful.

Mr. and Mrs. John Patterson and Laquarta and Grandmother Patterson motored to Ft. Worth to attend the funeral of Dad Patterson's brother, Saturday.

We had Sunday school Sunday but not many were out owing to sickness in the community.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Shipman went to Floydada to visit with their daughters over the week end.

G. E. Wesley has been suffering a lot from eruptions in his nose and now has erysiplis which is giving him lots of misery.

Dinner guests in the E. M. Rogers home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Wilson and sons, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wilson and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wesley and Arlen Ray.

People in this community might be interested in knowing that Jake Rogers is dead. He died at his home in Vernon from a stroke of paralysis some two weeks ago.

Arlen Ray Wesley spent several days visiting his father, E. E. Wesley who lives in Canyon.

Joe Curry was called to the bedside of his father, J. A. Curry, who lives in Happy, Saturday night. Mr. Curry has been quite sick.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Barnard has returned home from Glen Rose both much improved in health.

Most everyone from this community attended the funeral of Mrs. Alma Miller, who was buried in Happy Thursday. Our sincere sympathy goes with the bereaved. Mrs. Miller was among the best beloved in our community.

Mrs. C. M. Rogers spent this week with her daughter, Mrs. L. H. Barnard who is recovering from a severe case of the mumps.

Next Sunday is Rev. Charley Odom's day at our church. We would like to see a large crowd out.

Highland News

Every farmer is urged to be at the Highland school house Monday night, March 8. Mr. Upchurch will be there and the new farm program will be explained and discussed. Be sure and be there.

Our spring and winter weather last week were a relief after the previous week of dust storms. Bedding and big washings were out on the lines and even Mr. Brown said he cleaned his house.

Mrs. Groom and Mrs. Frazier of Amarillo visited Mrs. Joe Bedenk last Wednesday.

Mrs. Elmer Mason and Mrs. Carl Fuqua attended club council meeting at Canyon last Saturday.

Edward Beale spent the week end at the Joe Bedenk home.

Mrs. R. H. Sharp and Mrs. Ed Sharp visited the Mason home several times last week.

Our sick folks are slowly improving. Mrs. Geo. Mason had another bad week last week. John McLean is still at Northwest Hospital, but hopes to be moved to his sister's at Bovina the last of this week. His parents from Bovina were up to see him last week. Sidney Sharp had to be taken in to the doctor last week. He had bronchitis, but is getting better. Mary Ann Bedenk is back in school but John Henry is sick again. We hope all will be up and well before long.

Grandpa Bedenk helped Carl Fuqua prune his grape vines Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fuqua had dinner with the Paxtons Friday noon. E. C. and Carl had their usual dominoe game. Carl came out ahead that day.

Joe Bedenk and George Wahls had dinner with Mr. Brown last Friday. Mr. Brown is getting ready to start work in the field again.

Don't forget the "tacky" and "42" party at the Highland school Saturday night, March 13. Bring your extra pennies to vote for the "tackiest" person.

Plan Pan American Olympics

Officials of the Greater Texas and Pan American Exposition welcome George Marshall to Dallas where he will stage an international summer sports program to open with the Exposition, June 12.

Washington Promoter Retained by Dallas To Stage Show Units

A Pan American Olympic, premier of all athletic meets of 1937 on the North American continent, has been announced by George Marshall, entertainment director for the Greater Texas and Pan American Exposition. Marshall has just been brought to the Exposition from Washington, D. C., on a salary of $100,000.

Tentative program under way by Marshall includes air and auto races, track meet, football and polo games, a spectacular night show in the auditorium and international girl shows in the casino and band shell. All athletic events and shows will have Latin American participation, carrying romance and color of the southern republics. Marshall will set up a Washton office to contact Latin American and Canadian legations relative to participation in all events. The Olympics will continue throughout the life of the Exposition from June 12 to October 31.

WITH YOUR ENGINE OIL-PLATED

OIL-PLATING differs widely from other forms of lubrication in this plain, understandable way: It remains lastingly fastened to the pistons, bearings and other engine parts, even when they are not in motion. This is made possible by the Germ Process—patented—which gives Conoco Germ Processed oil its strong attraction for metals, so that every working part becomes durably Oil-Plated.

Oil-Plating is not like any lubrication that merely goes on-and-off. Once Germ Processed oil covers the parts it never leaves them bare of Oil-Plating . . . Never when the pistons are racing thousands of strokes a minute . . . Never on any hills, despite any load . . . Never while you park at a dozen different stores.

So it's nothing to you, when engineers blame more than half of all engine wear on so-called "dry starting." Nor need you worry over all the rest of the annual Spring oil scare. Whether your car is new or old, you can make your longer runs . . . hit your higher speeds . . . enjoy your hotter sunshine. Oil-Plating can take it like the longest-lasting part of your engine. For Oil-Plating really becomes a long-lasting part of your engine, as you change to long-lasting Conoco Germ Processed oil. Continental Oil Company

Economic and Social Opinions Are Work of Court

S. H. Condron, head of the department of Government of W. T., discussed the proposal of President Roosevelt to revamp the federal courts at the luncheon of the Rotary Club Tuesday.

After analyzing the work of the court, Mr. Condron found that economic and social opinions constituted the bulk of the work of the court today, rather than the opinion of law.

"It is an unhealthy state when a nation does not think of its problems," stated the speaker, as he approved the general discussion which was taking place regarding the court changes.

Mr. Condron outlined the improvements which the President seeks to make in the court. Outlining other changes which have been made in the supreme court in years past, Mr. Condron observed that "No great calamity befell the nation because of these improvements."

When congress passed the bill establishing the supreme court of the Philippine Islands, practically all of the provisions asked by the President at the present time were included in the Philippine bill.

Doug Shirley was in charge of the program and introduced the speaker.

Visitors present were: L. A. Wells and Arch Hunsley of Amarillo; Buff Morris and Bill Hughes of Canyon.

it as a separate unit. The necessity for considering the great Plains apart from the rest of the country was stressed by many of the speakers.

Dr. H. H. Bennett, head of soil conservation service, outlined the dangers of soil erosion and the flood menace to the nation and declared that unless something drastic is done on a big scale the nation is on the way out. He deplored the fact the nation seemed to be lulled into a false security with reference to its soil wealth.

Destroying Soil Wealth

"We are doing everything to destroy our soil wealth faster than any other civilization in known history," said Bennett.

Every speaker at the meeting was unanimous in discussing the need for concerted action, proper legislation and consideration of the problem. Full support of the soil conservation measures, emergency listing, range rehabilitation, pond and dam construction was expressed and urged.

Speakers Monday Night

Speakers included Senators Carl Hatch and Dennis Chaves of New Mexico; Morris Sheppard of Texas; Josh Lee of Oklahoma; Edwin C. Johnson of Colorado and Arthur Capper of Kansas, and Congressmen Marvin Jones, Clyde Garrett, George Mahon, W. D. McFarlane and Wright Patman of Texas; Representatives Jed Johnson, R. P. Hill, Lyle H. Boren, Wilburn Cartwright, Phil Ferguson, Jack Nichols, Sam Massengale and Will Rogers of Oklahoma; Representatives Clifford Hope and John M. Houston of Kansas, and John Martin of Colorado. Julius Cox of Boise City and John McCarty of Amarillo presented reports from the Plains country, and the Panhandle Water Conservation Association. Attending the banquet besides the above were F. W. Phillips, Boise City; Arch Hurley of Tucumcari; Van Stewart of Perryton; E. C. Fisher of Canadian and a large corps of Washington correspondents.

Representative Jones said he believed a new agency, such as a great Plains authority or committee, should be created to attack properly the dust problem in Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas, Colorado, and New Mexico.

Sen. Josh Lee of Oklahoma suggested that wind erosion, particularly, could not be properly fought with the present high rate of tenant farming.
